Building Advantage Announces Chris Mambu Rasch as Executive Director

MILWAUKEE – Building Advantage (CLMC)’s Board of Directors are pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Mambu Rasch as the organization’s next Executive Director, effective February 14th.

Rasch joins Building Advantage with 20 years of experience in healthcare, governmental affairs and labor. He will be further developing relationships in the commercial construction industry on behalf of the trades and contractors that Building Advantage represents. Rasch is a Wisconsin native and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Madison.

“I’m thrilled to begin building relationships and making an impact on behalf of our union and management construction industry partners,” says Rasch. “Southeast Wisconsin’s economy benefits from union commercial construction, and I look forward to continuing this organization’s mission to promote union construction as the first choice for partners and career-seekers”.

“We’re excited to have Chris join the organization”, states Dan Bukiewicz, President of the Milwaukee Building and Construction Trades Council and Building Advantage Co-Chair. “Chris has the right background to hit the ground running and build upon the initiatives that Building Advantage has developed”.

Building Advantage is a Milwaukee area based Joint Labor Management Commercial Construction Trade Association, developed by the Construction Labor Management Council of Southeast Wisconsin (CLMC), and is dedicated to advancing the interests of the union tradespeople and contractors in the Greater Milwaukee Area.
